History Edit

The Arkanian praxeum.

Established by Master Jeth deep within the Arkanian wilderness, the facility was far from the diamond mines that riddled the planet. The praxeum was equipped to train and house many students at a time, sometime upwards of twenty. Using ancient training droids and wild Arkanian dragons as opponents, Jeth educated his students in the ways of Lightsaber combat, Force techniques, meditation, and diplomacy.^[1]

Many Knights passed through the praxeum's halls, including Ulic Qel-Droma, Cay Qel-Droma, and Tott Doneeta.^[1] During the Great Sith War, the Jedi High Council acknowledged Padawans Krynda Hulis and Barrison Draay's passage of the Jedi Trials and conferred upon them the rank of Knight. Along with the Knights stationed at the praxeum, Jeth formally knighted the pair, leaving out Padawan Haazen, as he had failed the Trials.^[2]

Layout Edit

A two story structure made of lumber and stone, the praxeum building contained a main hall, which served to host knighting ceremonies, training bouts, and other events. A small porch encircled the main building. A courtyard was located not far from the main buildings, surrounded by stone walls with carvings and art sketched into it.^[2]
